Rabbi's Message

The Iranian people have been fighting for their lives on a daily basis. . . . but still the Jewish community has remained largely silent. – Rabbi Tarlan Rabizadeh in the Jewish Journal, December 8, 2022

How – and what – do we communicate? As I read the article quoted above, it struck me hard, in the gut and in the heart. I, too, have found myself powerless to hold at once in the forefront of my mind every hardship in our world, or even every tragedy. I am unable to mention every disaster, not even those affecting us directly, during our healing prayer together. Even when I have been speaking intensely with, and keeping in my personal prayers daily, people I know well, I may miss an opportunity to let you know, in a way most meaningful to you, how much you mean to me and how deeply I care.

In reading the article written by Rabbi Rabizadeh – who came to the U.S. with his family shortly before the 1979 revolution and overthrow of the Shah in their native Iran – I learned that my own inability to “wrap my head around” all the difficulties, misfortunes and challenges facing my loved ones at any moment may be shared, on a global scale, by groups of people and even by nations.

How, then, can we hope to communicate effectively our love to each other? This question is at the center of Jewish law, the “Golden Rule” we have discussed together so often: to treat all of G-d’s Creation with the love and respect that we ourselves want and need, and that is G-d’s gift to each of us.

Collectively, we have spoken often of the suffering in Ukraine, and little of the horror in Iran. I know that some of you have been suffering, too, in relative silence or feeling unseen and unheard, in obscurity, while the challenges and losses facing others of us are more widely known, discussed and comforted.

I have written often, and include my telephone number in this space, to invite your calls and texts at any time. As I can receive a hundred and more emails in a day, I may easily miss an important message sent through the internet. If this should happen to an email you send me, please follow up with a text and, ideally, a phone call, as it is of utmost importance to me that your thoughts be received.

While we may not be able to achieve equity in the expression of our emotional responses, we can surely share with each other the love in our hearts, including both genuine compassion for the difficulties we cannot change, and overflowing gratitude for all the gifts that make it possible for us to offer help where we can. With love and blessings for a 2023 of good health and fulfillment for each one of you, and good communication among us all – Rabbi Karen Allen – 386.254.2773.

The President's Message

Like many of you, I'm thrilled to see the end of 2022! Unfortunately, many of us have had health challenges this past year. Hopefully we'll be able to start the new year in better health and able to resume the normal activities we enjoy.

As we continue hybrid services, we have resumed Onegs and Kiddushes for our members who are back in the shul, so that we can continue a very important part of attending services – being able to socialize with our Congregational family. Sponsoring an Oneg or Kiddush gives our members the opportunity to share a celebration (birthdays or anniversaries or no reason at all) or to honor the memory of a loved one who has passed. If you are interested in being a sponsor, please contact Roz Wenrich. (see page 7).

We will be recognizing our New Members at the January 13th Service and look forward to seeing everyone then. Our Annual Meeting will be held virtually on Sunday January 22nd for all members in good standing. At that time our new officers and directors will be introduced. Please make sure to join us to hear about the plans for 2023 and what we've accomplished in the past year.

On January 28th we will be recognizing our Board of Directors for all the work they do on behalf of the Congregation. I certainly hope that members will join us to show appreciation for their efforts.

We are pleased to announce that we will be having our traditional Passover Seder (Thursday April 6th). I'm looking forward to seeing members and guests join us to celebrate the holiday. Thank you to our Secretary Fred Jacobs for arranging our location, the Eisenhower Recreation Center in The Villages. We were fortunate to get a new caterer last year, thanks to our Treasurer Dave Englander. Everyone agreed that Laura's food was amazing. As soon as all the details are finalized, we will communicate that information to everyone. As always, guests are welcome!

We will continue to monitor COVID. Our priority is the health and safety of our members and guests.

I would like to wish everyone a Happy & Healthy New Year!

Shalom

Leesburg Food Bank

Written by Director Barry Wright

Donations over the last two and a half years were phenomenal during the pandemic. The community really came out to help. Francine Rizzotto, Gloria Blankenship, and myself from Beth Sholom are some of the volunteers at the Food Bank. Everyone at the food bank is a volunteer. NO ONE IS PAID.

Everything that is picked up from the Food Bank is FREE.

Since the synagogue is now open for services twice a month please remember to bring your donations every time you come. They will be taken to the Food Bank that is 2 blocks away. This summer the donations slowed down but nothing like what we had in years past. The snowbirds are back and the flow of donations has picked up again dramatically. Very impressive.

Based on the difference in donations over the last almost 3 years and the pandemic we have had to reorganize the food bank. We still do not let in the clients to the food bank for obvious safety issues for the volunteers at the food bank. Because of the changes we still do not have a clothing room. Hopefully one day that will happen. At this point, we are taking all donations including food. If you have any large items to donate please call 352-326-5463. Someone with a truck will pick it up. If you have clothes or smaller items to donate please bring them to the north side of the building. They will be gone through and if found ok will be placed in the huge storage container outside the building.

Please remember that the food bank is only open Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 8:30 am to 12 for donations.

Current needs:

Food: pork and beans, canned fruit, jelly, side dishes, dry pasta, ketchup, mustard, boost, ensure, dog and cat food.

Personal items: Bar soap, tooth paste, tooth brush, deodorant, shampoo, baby diapers, sanitary napkins for young ladies.

New and slightly used clothing, new socks, shoes, boots and sneakers for kids.

Money or gift cards to local grocery stores are also welcome.

There is a special program at the Food Bank for the public school kids in Leesburg. The Food Bank actually packs and delivers food to the schools on Wednesdays for 334 children from the 7 Leesburg public schools. The school repacks the items and distributes them to the students on Friday for Saturday and Sunday. If you wish to donate to this program make your check payable to Leesburg Food Bank and write on the check something like "schools" or "backpack program" on the memo line.

Alternatively, you can write a check to Congregation Beth Sholom and put 'Food Bank' on the memo.

The Food Bank is at 503 N. 13th St, Leesburg, FL. 34748.

Thank you for your support.
