NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS / DIRECTORS AND SPECIAL MEETING OF MEMBERS TO VOTE ON PROPOSED C.B.S. BY-LAWS AMENDMENTS

As directed by the By-Laws, our annual meeting will take place on Sunday, January 18, 2026, at 11 AM. Annual Meetings are important. The purpose is to keep you informed of the accomplishments and future of Congregation Beth Sholom. It is also when you elect officers and directors for their term of office.

Following the annual meeting, a special meeting of members will be held to vote on proposed C.B.S by-laws amendments.

The meeting will be held at the synagogue and virtually via Zoom. All members who have made a dues payment are encouraged to attend the meeting and participate in the election of officers.

At this year's meeting we will be electing the Vice President, Treasurer, and 2 directors.

- Vice President – Melinda Hock is running for re-election.
- Treasurer – Dave Englander is running for re-election.
- Directors Barry Wright and Francine Rizzotto are running for re-election.

The deadline for nominations for the above offices expired on November 14, 2025. With there being no additional nominees for the above said officers' and directors' positions, nominations for the officers and directors listed above are closed, and are unopposed. Therefore, pursuant to our By-Laws, the persons listed above will be reelected to their positions by acclamation at the January 18, 2026 election referred to above; and no official ballot will be distributed. (Current By-Laws, Article Six)

Please be sure to make a dues payment as soon as possible if you have not done so. This will keep you as a member in good standing and included in the membership directory. A new updated membership directory will be distributed at the annual meeting.

This is your synagogue. Know what is happening. Attend the Annual Meeting!

Letter to Congregants from Rabbi Silverman

Dear Friends, January and February invite us into a quieter season—shorter days, cooler mornings, and a pace that encourages reflection. In Jewish tradition, winter is not empty time; it is gestation time. Beneath the cooler ground, life is preparing to emerge. So too in our own lives. Many of you carry decades of wisdom, memories, and resilience. You have lived through moments of great joy and real loss, and you know that renewal does not always announce itself loudly. Sometimes it comes gently—through a phone call to an old friend, a warm bowl of matza ball soup shared with family, or a familiar melody in synagogue that reminds us who we are and where we belong. In the past year, we have gained 29 new and returning precious members. Our bi-monthly Joyful Shabbat Services are filled to the brim with wonderfully sponsored Kiddishes and Onegs and Life Cycle Occasions celebrated. Our Wednesday Evening Classes on Torah and Rashi are beautifully attended with some people having never really studied this way before this. Our Classes on Sunday Afternoons are packed and there is hardly enough time to cover everything. We have suffered some losses and health issues together and have found solace in each other. And I have been with you as your Rabbi now for one full year and yes, this is a Synagogue that feels like family! These months also remind us how precious community is. If you feel more isolated during the cooler days, please know that you are not alone. Our synagogue is here not only as a place to pray, but as a place to be known and cared for. A visit, a conversation, a smile in the hallway—these are holy acts. As we move through January and February together, may we continue to support one another, to find warmth in connection, and to trust that even in the winter season, God is quietly preparing blessings yet to come.

With affection and blessings,

Rabbi Ronald N. “Reuven” Silverman

THANK YOU

Rabbi Silverman: for excellence and devotion in his organizing and leading the Shabbat and other services, including arranging for the occasional assistance of Rabbi Michael Asher, whom we also thank for his wonderful work; and thanks to Dr. Marnell LaRoe Hayes, our gabbai, and Dr. Elise Lev, our assistant gabbai, for all of their assistance in the services and in their preparation.

Also, thank you to Rabbi Silverman, for his ongoing monthly Judaism classes, weekly Torah study Zoom classes, and his updates concerning Israel news and other matters.

Barry Wright: for scheduling and coordinating police for security for our services and other events; and for other ongoing functions, including work / arranging repairs as needed on our IT (webcam, microphones, etc.) equipment, helping with setup for services, obtaining a rack for our forms kept in the sanctuary; and other matters to keep the synagogue in good function.

Robin Vizer, Francine and Chip Rizzotto, and Barry Wright, for assisting with the setup for the Chanukah service kiddush on Dec. 20, and with the Chanukah / Judaica items distribution to members during the November services.

Francine Rizzotto: (We are sharing the following explanation prepared by Francine at Freeda's request; as Francine's dedication is remarkable). After the high holidays this year, Francine noticed that the Rimmonim were very dirty. She brought them home and over the next couple of weeks she took great care and polished them. Then she realized that, as we only use them once a month, they needed to be protected from the air which helps to tarnish the silver; so, she then purchased silver-impregnated bags made especially for silver pieces. (CBS reimbursed her). So, each set of Rimmonim now have a bag in which to be stored between services. At the beginning of each Saturday service, when Francine knows the Torah's will be used, she removes one set and put them on the stand inside the Ark so that they are ready to be put on top of the Torah scrolls. After the service, before she leaves, Francine then wipes them down with a special cloth and puts them back in their protective bags. (Francine said: "When I saw how dirty they were, I thought of my mother, who was sitting on my shoulder, and said Francine, those need to be cleaned!"). Francine's goal is to have them stay nice and shiny throughout the year, and, hopefully, she won't have to do the big cleaning again.

Fred Jacobs, for chairing the By-Laws amendments committee, and Dan Hirschfeld, Dr. Marnell LaRoe Hayes, and Dave Englander, for serving on the committee.

Melinda Hock, for her excellence, skill, and dedication in preparing the Shofar and in updating our website.

Dave Englander: obtaining a new safe deposit box for our master documents / keys and to Helene Bachmann for being the second signer / keyholder to our safe deposit box; several revisions made by Dave needed to our Membership and Aliyah lists due to recent influx of new members.

Susan Kaplan, for offering to assist C.B.S. with a possible grant program.

Enid Schibuk, for offering to conduct a charity drive, through donations of her original paintings, to raise charity funds; this is in the planning stage.

Judy and Neil Schulman, member, and Shari Appell (of Leesburg), for donating Chanukah and Judaica items, many of which were then distributed, with the donors' approval, to C.B.S. members.

Francine Rizzotto, Helene Bachmann, Robin Vizer, Arlene Gibbs, and others who provide kitchen/food assistance for our services. Francine and Chip Rizzotto for heading, coordinating and performing the ongoing kitchen and food responsibilities.

Dr. Marnell LaRoe Hayes, for repairing the torah gartles.

Barry Wright, Gloria Blankenship, and Francine Rizzotto for reorganizing the table in the back of the sanctuary; and for reorganizing the bulletin board (which Barry will replace with a larger one and move to a different location) in the social hall.

Gloria Blankenship, chair of the welcome/membership committee, and committee members: Andrea Kraft, Sandy Byrne, and Robin Vizer, for their ongoing support of C.B.S. in these endeavors.

Linda Kost for offering assistance with Zoom / IT equipment information, member emails, phone calls, and website assistance and advice as needed; due to her extensive knowledge from years of work on the C.B. S. board before moving out of state.

Dave Englander and Freeda Louthan, for providing photos of our sanctuary before/after services, and of our social hall activities to Melinda for use in our Shofar and on our website.

Helene Bachmann for updating the yahrzeit lists and preparing them for publication in the Shofar.

Helene Steinberg, and her sisters, Marlene Steinberg, and Susan Goodman, for organizing the Nov. 23 game day, and for food brought.

Melinda Hock, for covering for Freeda Louthan at the Nov. 29 service, when Freeda had young grandchildren in town.

Gloria Blankenship, for following up with members regarding dues payment.

Dave Englander, for arranging for the HVAC units to be checked; and Freeda Louthan, for attending our pest control service appointment.

The Villages Daily Sun, The Leesburg Daily Commercial, and the Jewish Heritage newspapers for articles concerning our synagogue.

Andrea Kraft for her ongoing work of receiving orders for the 2026 Mah Jongg cards (orders are now open through Jan 25, 2026); for which we receive funds that we use for charitable purposes.

Barbara Burton for her ongoing work in receiving / coordinating of sponsors for onegs and kiddushes; and for providing information about a potential new fund-raising project.

To the membership for providing latkes and other Chanukah foods, and to Barbara Burton, for picking up the Chanukah foods, for the December 20 kiddush.

Dr. Marnell LaRoe Hayes for providing chocolate gelt candy, Dan Hirschfeld for providing chocolate marshmallow dreidels, and Robin Vizer for providing cranberry orange relish for the latkes, for our Dec. 20 Chanukah kiddush.

Freeda Louthan, Barbara Burton, Rabbi Reuven and Congregation Beth Sholom for a joyous celebration of my 80th birthday. With gratitude, Helene Bachmann.

Sandra Byrne for progress in creating a Google Drive system for storing our important documents, and for her and Dave Englander for working to implement this.

Special thanks from Rabbi Silverman:

1. To the Congregation for having me as your Rabbi!
2. To Lenny Steinberg for his Torah Readings!
3. To the Congregation for the outpouring of personal "Get Wells" to Renee Silverman
4. To Barry for getting the microphones updated all the time and setting up the Synagogue.
5. To Freeda for being a great President.
6. To Marnell and Elise for being great support to the Rabbi.
7. To all the participants in the Wednesday Night Classes.
8. To the Board of Directors who work tirelessly to make this all happen!

SEND A CARD AND SUPPORT THE SYNAGOGUE

There are many meaningful reasons to send a card—birthdays, anniversaries, get well wishes, condolences, or congratulations. Your donation not only supports the synagogue but also lets someone know you care. Simply mail your donation to the synagogue along with your message. For more information, contact Dave Englander at 352-504-4402. He will send the card on your behalf, and your good wishes will be shared in the Shofar.

SPONSOR AN ONEG SHABBAT OR KIDDUSH

There are many wonderful reasons to become a sponsor—celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or special occasion; honoring the memory of a loved one; or simply enjoying Shabbat. Of course, no reason is required beyond the willingness to take a turn. Sponsorship doesn't have to be done alone—you can invite a friend or a group of friends to co-sponsor with you. Sponsors provide the refreshments, while the shul supplies the challah, wine, paper goods, and plasticware. To reserve your date, please contact Barbara Burton at beburton43-at-yahoo.com (replace “–at–” with @) or 602-603-1688.

EXPLANATION OF DATES ON YAHRZEIT LIST We give our members the option to observe yahrzeit on the secular date (the actual date of passing) or the Hebrew date. If there is no Hebrew date next to a name, it is because their family prefers to observe yahrzeit on the secular calendar date. To add a loved one to the yahrzeit list, contact Helene Bachmann and provide the names and relationship of the congregant and relative, and the actual date of passing including the year. Please indicate whether you wish to observe yahrzeit on the secular or Jewish date. Contact Helene at helenebachmann – at– hotmail.com (replace –at– with @) or 310-490-3365

We are feeling very blessed with all the support that we receive on a continuous basis. We appreciate the monetary donations, the food donations, and the volunteers who dedicate endless hours to help those in need. Thank you for partnering with us to feed the hungry and less fortunate in Leesburg and the surrounding areas.
