Rabbi's Message

Set these words, which I command you this day, upon your heart. Teach them diligently to your children The Sh'ma

Congratulations, charter officers of our Men's Club: founder Ben Solotoroff, President; David Litwack, Vice President; Bob Marcus, Treasurer; and Arthur Lubin, Corresponding Secretary. Yasher ko'ach, may you and the organization of gentlemen of Congregation Beth Sholom go from strength to strength.

The Sisterhood, too, has been moving non-stop, promoting new activities, and making congregation events sparkle with delectable food and merriment.

Extraordinary caterer Deanna's husband and partner, Ken, is recovering well from surgery performed at the end of December. They have just celebrated their son's wedding in Dallas, and are looking forward to making our Passover Seder the kosher Pesach extravaganza that only they can achieve.

Dr. Marnell LaRoe Hayes' challah baking class will enliven the Shabbat tables of those fortunate enough to claim a place at her seminar, and her Hebrew classes are continuing to prepare beginners and more experienced readers to participate actively in services and to ascend the bima for aliyot.

If you have not yet signed up for Mondays in March with our gabbai and instructor on the inner world of Judaism, Marsha Stemerman, you will want to let her know you will be attending this year, as the vibrant roster of participants will experience an inspiration and elevation of their souls!

Our Oneg and Kiddush celebrations, a vital component of the religious observance of Shabbat, are honored by our members with a richness that gives depth to our spiritual family gatherings. All of these important activities are interwoven into a fabric of caring and sharing that foster the blossoming of Congregation Beth Sholom.

When President Andrea Kraft spoke at our recent Board Recognition Service of inviting long-serving former President Linda Kost to retain a position of leadership as Vice President, we were reminded of the importance of continuity in growing leaders who continue to build the congregation.

We have enjoyed many wonderful b'nei and b'not mitzvah in our sanctuary, teaching our children as prescribed in the Sh'ma. And now, adult learners are participating actively in our Torah services. Hank Hartstein has been chanting the Haftarah and blessings regularly and generously. Herb Siegel and Irv Pomeranz have chanted Haftarah and blessings in celebration of their birthdays. And I invite you, too, to learn, or re-learn, skills that will deepen your spiritual life in a fun and meaningful way as you join us on the bima.

With love and blessings – Rabbi Karen Allen – 386.254.2773

The President's Message

At our last Friday night service in February we had our Board Recognition service. Our Officers and Directors were reintroduced to the Congregation. I had the opportunity to share my experiences working with our officers and directors to detail some of the many responsibilities that they handle. As volunteers, we spend a lot of time and energy trying to do what is in the best interest of Congregation Beth Sholom. As with any organization that depends on volunteers, we are blessed to have members who freely share their time and talents to do what needs to be done. We are always looking for members who want to get more involved. If that describes you, please let us know.

It is wonderful that so many people are finding that Congregation Beth Sholom is indeed the "The Synagogue that Feels like Family."

Ben Solotoroff has formed the Men's Club. They meet on the last Sunday of each month. They will be planning social activities for members of the congregation, sometimes in conjunction with the Sisterhood to foster a greater involvement of our members.

I would like to thank all our members who attended our Annual Meeting on January 19th. I'm sure that the abundant food provided by the Sisterhood was a major factor for the attendance. Once again, thank you to all the ladies who participated to make the Annual Meeting (Election of Board Members and review of 2019 Highlights) a success.

Celebrate the holidays with us:

We will celebrate Purim at the Friday evening service on March 13th.

We will celebrate Passover with our 2nd night Seder on Thursday April 9th. Once again Deanna's Catering is providing our wonderful Kosher Dinner. This year we will be hosting the event in The Villages at The Mulberry Grove Recreation Center. A reservation form (see page 6) is included in the Shofar. As always, we welcome members and guests to join us as Rabbi Allen leads our service with music and interesting explanations of our customs.

In January and February, as this issue of the Shofar is going to press, the last of our Religious School students are being called to the Torah as Bat Mitzvahs. Great job Ladies! We look forward to seeing them continue to worship with us. We have experienced their growth and maturity and continue to kvell along with their families, as we are their spiritual family.

Learn with us:

Dr. Marnell LaRoe Hayes continues with her Hebrew classes on Wednesdays at 4 pm. If you'd like to study with Marnell please contact her to register. (see page 12).

Mondays in March with Marsha – Our gabbai Marsha Stemerman will be holding classes in Exploring Judaism on Monday afternoons at 4pm. Each class is a separate topic, so you can go to one or all of them.

We hope to see you soon, whether at a service, the Seder, or a class.

Sisterhood News

What a great success the annual meeting was. Not only did we get an update on the Synagogue given by our Synagogue president Andrea Kraft we had a tremendous meal. There was a great turn out, and thanks to the ladies from Sisterhood no one went away hungry.

The Tu B' Shevat Seder was both informative and the food was wonderful. Marsha did an excellent job of giving us a background of the holiday, and she was an impressive leader of the Seder. The ladies of the Sisterhood did an admirable job of bringing food that characterized the holiday.

A thank you to Phylis Berger for donating the door prizes for both the January sisterhood meeting and for the Tu B' Shevat Seder. Judy Albin won the prize at the January meeting and Edith Freiwirth won the one at the Seder.

Dorothy Strauss is busy working on the Sisterhood Cookbook. If you have favorite recipes please e-mail them to Dorothy at dorothys304-at-gmail.com (replace –at– with @).

There are still openings for the Challah baking class on March 19th. If you are interested in attending please call Henrietta Lubin at 708-724-4605 to make your reservations. You will not want to miss this fun class.

The Knitty Gritty Crafters meetings will be on March 16th and April 17th at 2:00 pm. They are held at Beverly Myers' home. Call Beverly at 352-633-1472 for information on this community service project for cancer patients.

Our first Spotlight on Charities was held in January. It was a huge success. Debbie Butler the director of the Leesburg Humane society was very grateful to the ladies of the Sisterhood for their many donations.

Our March Program should be of great interest to all that are interested in eating healthy food. Dirty Dog Organic Farm will be sending a representative to talk to us about the organic produce they grow. The goal of the farm is to help folks eat better while strengthening the local food market. Aubrey and her Husband Chris Cash own and operate Dirty Dog Organics Farm in Leesburg. Their store not only sells produce, but many other items like 100% grass fed meat, eggs, and crafts. They all so offer wildlife rehabilitation.

In April Pier One will be presenting a program on how to decorate for spring. This should be a fun mini program for all that attend. If you are looking for some new ideas you will not want to miss this program.

We are still looking for a book to discuss in May. If you have any ideas bring them to the next meeting.

As always if you have any question or suggestion for Sisterhood please call me.

Dee Marcus, Sisterhood president 352-750-8086

Exploring Judaism—Adult Education Class

Mondays in March with Marsha

Mon. March 2, 9, 16, and 23 4:00-5:00 at the synagogue

We will be discussing the seven questions asked in Heaven based on the book by the same name. What will happen in the next life? Who knows? However asking yourself these questions now can help you focus on this life and how to make it more meaningful and purposeful.

We will also analyze various prayers connected to our service to better understand their meaning and how to apply them to our everyday life. Come join us as we develop ways to live a life using our Jewish spirituality as our guide.

You can attend all classes or individual ones as each session is a stand alone class.

Please sign up as handouts will be given to participants. There is a sign up sheet at the synagogue or you can contact me by phone or e-mail.

Let us study together to enrich our lives.

Members free—non-members $5 per class

R'fuah Sh'leima (Get Well Wishes)

to those who have been ill or have had or will have surgery:

Phylis Berger, Francine Rizzotto, Lynne Bloom

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT OUR MI SHEBEIRACH LIST

One of the central Jewish prayers for those who are ill or recovering from illness or accidents is the Mi Shebeirach. While it may be rare for the patient himself/herself to be at services, a very close friend or relative will ask that their name be included in the prayer.

Over the years, our Mi Shebeirach list has grown very large and may include names of people who are now in good health. As a result, we are compiling a new Mi Shebeirach list beginning April 1st. Fred Jacobs, Board Secretary, has assumed the duties of creating and maintaining the new Mi Shebeirach list.

Beginning April 1st, please send the names of relatives and very close friends in need of prayer for healing to Fred at secretary.bethsholom-at-gmail.com. (replace -at- with @). Names on the current list will not be carried over to the new list. If that person is still in need of prayer, you must notify Fred so that name can be included on the new Mi Shebeirach list. This new list will be compiled during April and read at our services beginning April 25th.

New names to be added to the current list, for reading at services on February 29th, March 13th, and March 29th are to be sent to Fred. If needed, the names just added to the old list must be re-submitted, after April 1st, for inclusion in the new list.

With the warmest regards and heartfelt thanks, the Board, on behalf of the entire Congregation wishes to express its appreciation to Elly Rothbard for maintaining the Mi Shebeirach list these past 7 years.

Thank You

To the Sisterhood members who brought refreshments to the Annual Meeting:

Dee Marcus, Henrietta Lubin, Marion Solotoroff, Diane Weinbaum

We give our members the option to observe yahrzeit on the secular date (the actual date of passing) or the Hebrew date. If there is no Hebrew date next to a name, it is because their family prefers to observe yahrzeit on the secular calendar date.
