Rabbi's Roundtable

Thursdays May 16 and June 20 at 1:00 pm in the main conference room
Sumter County Administration and Library Building
7375 Powell Rd., Wildwood

The Rabbi's Roundtable series explores the current arc of Torah portions along with Jewish spiritual traditions and how they affect our personal experiences and aspirations.

The roundtable provides a unique opportunity to talk with Rabbi Allen as she leads an informal and interactive discussion focusing on topics of contemporary Jewish interest.

Rabbi's Message

My first glimpse of our magnificent new Mishkan, the Ark of the Torah -- envisioned, designed, crafted and dedicated to Congregation Beth Sholom by our brilliantly gifted member, Martin Sandler -- literally took my breath away. I felt transported to another time and place.

We had been in the arc of Torah readings describing the creation of the first Mishkan, which housed the tablets of the Ten Commandments (including the broken ones!) in the wilderness.

For that original Ark, G-d appointed by name two Israelites, talented in all aspects of crafting in every medium, to supervise the enormous task that was to engage the attention, efforts and contributions of the entire Jewish people.

Everyone in the community pitched in to give what they possessed, both their material resources and the labor for which G-d had granted them special talent.

I could feel immediately, in the presence of our own new and resplendent Mishkan, a contemporary rebirth of the inspiration and anointing that marked the original! But how could this tremendous achievement be accomplished by one person?

At the service that evening, I learned that Mr. Sandler's two grandchildren, Libby and Sam Rice, graduates of our religious school and B'nei Mitzvah in our synagogue, were instrumental in the design (Libby, an artist, created and drew the concept of the trees on the doors) and execution (Sam, a worker in wood, assisted his grandfather in the construction) of the Ark.

Since their father, Roger Rice, was Administrator of the religious school and their mother, Jennifer Rice, has served on our Board of Directors, together they represent three generations of service to their congregation and community!

At that same service, we celebrated with joy the contributions of a graceful electric candelabra (for our use in the sanctuary during the season when we don't light regular candles), beautifully created and hand carved by Dan Hirschfeld with the blessings in Hebrew, transliteration and translation; and a wonderful tikkun (the book from which the Torah reader prepares the chanting) contributed by Irv Pomeranz and his brother Stanley. (Please see p. 11 for a photo of the candelabra and more exciting member contributions.)

And we are experiencing now the resurgence of still more avenues through which to contribute, as we see in the blossoming of our newly reconstituted Sisterhood, which is renewing a strong, essential element of the congregation that provides unique opportunities for friendship, service and leadership.

Just as the first Ark in the wilderness required the generous participation of every member of the Jewish people, I am grateful to be the spiritual leader of this community that recognizes the need for the open-hearted contribution of every one of us. Thank you all for your gifts of love that make our beloved Congregation Beth Sholom a truly worthy spiritual home – with love and blessings – Rabbi Karen Allen—386-676-5157

Message from the President

Since my last article we have celebrated Purim, and have a new Ark, thanks to Martin Sandler. Martin has also built 2 cabinets in the rear of the Sanctuary along with a new small table on the bima. We will hold a formal dedication of the new ark at our Friday service on June 14. I hope that you will be able to attend this very special evening.

Let me take this opportunity to thank everyone who is joining us for our annual 2nd night Seder. A special thank you to Burt and Andrea Kraft for handling the reservations and arrangements for the set up of the room, making the charoset, obtaining the matzah, buying and roasting the shank bones, and everything else they do to make the Seder wonderful. This is no small task and is a job WELL DONE. A BIG THANK YOU to Rabbi Allen in leading our Seder. Thank you to the Theissen's for arranging for the use of the facility at Pennbrooke Fairways. A very special thank you to Deanna and her team for the delicious food.

Thank you to Dan Hirschfeld for the beautiful hand carved electric Shabbat candle holder.

Thank you to Dee Marcus for spearheading the startup of the new Sisterhood. Mazel Tov to the new officers: Dee Marcus, Diane Weinbaum, Karen Blumenfeld, Marion Solotoroff, and Sandra Byrne.

Thank you to all our members for the support you show by attending services, Rabbi's Roundtables, Hebrew classes, and Marsha's Exploring Judaism class.

A special really appreciated thank you to Marsha Stemerman. Last Friday Marsha stepped in and led our service when our Rabbi was stopped behind a terrible accident that closed the road for 2 hours.

A special thank you to Martin Sandler, and Bob & Dee Marcus for working with Martin in building the new sign out front. And a thank you to Dee and Bob Marcus for paying for the sign.

Lights in the sign were done by Irv Pomeranz. Thank you to Irv for all the electrical work he does for us.

In future articles, look for names of members that go above and beyond normal or regular assistance to the synagogue or our members.

Looking forward to seeing you at services, our Passover Seder, and the Rabbi's Roundtable.

Questions, feel free to call me at 305-343-532-5327 Cookie Wright, President

Message from the Vice President

It is my pleasure to share the news that this year's Seder is breaking an attendance record with more than 100 people joining us to celebrate, some from as far away as California!

As many of you know, this is the time of the year when we have our Annual Appeal. Our dues do not cover all of our expenses and we depend on the generosity of our members and guests to make contributions all year long to bridge the gap. To those of you who have already responded to the appeal, thank you! To those who haven't made their contribution yet, please consider helping us support the operations of the synagogue.

For those who have attended services recently, you are aware that we now have a police presence outside the shul during Shabbat Services. This is an additional expense that we did not have to incur in the past, but unfortunately these are the times that we now live in.

Our Honey from The Heart fundraiser is now beginning and is a wonderful way to wish friends and family a Happy & Sweet New Year. Details are on page 7.

Looking forward to seeing you at all of our services and special events!

Andrea Kraft, Vice President, 352-513-3517

Leesburg Food Bank

I wanted to give you a current update for the Food Bank. The snow birds are heading home and donations from them will be stopping shortly once they clean out their food pantries before they leave. The snow birds will not be back until November or December. Unfortunately the people that go to the food bank need assistance during this time. So please do not forget to remember to bring in food whenever you come to Congregation Beth Sholom. Also remember that the Food Bank accepts everything, including clothing, furniture, appliances, and large and small household items. If it is too big to bring to the shul give them a call at 352-326-5463 and they will pick it up.

The Food Bank is open from 8:30 to 12 noon Monday through Thursday and pick ups are Monday through Saturday.

Everything you donate is given to the needy free of charge. Please bring something for the Food Bank each time you come to the synagogue. The one food item that is not needed is green beans. Publix gives the food bank cases of them. One thing that they are generally short of is cans of fruit.

Here is some information that you might find useful based on the generosity of the community to the Leesburg Food Bank for 2018.

421,000 meals were provided to people who came to the Food Bank.

17,000 people were served.

625,000 pounds of food were provided to those served at the Food Bank.

In 2018, Congregation Beth Sholom supported the Food Bank with $710 in cash donations, 685 pounds of food, and lots of clothing.

The Leesburg Food Bank thanks you for any and all of your efforts to help.
