Rabbi's Message

WHAT IF WE TURN AWAY FROM ISRAEL?

Many of us have sensed a growing, global ambivalence toward Israel, a limitation of patience with its right to defend itself. Unlike perhaps any other country in the world, Israel has been surrounded from its inception by sworn enemies intent on destroying it, along with the Jewish people. A limitation on its defense immediately translates to a threat to Israel's – and our – existence.

Since 1948, the proud and unwavering strength of Israel's military defense has virtually erased the age-old stereotype of the weak, vulnerable Jew.

Until now. The progress of recent years -- the Abraham accords, and greatly increased collegiality and communication between Israel and an increasing number of its Arab neighbors -- has been placed at grave risk by the sudden perception that Israel appears, suddenly, vulnerable.

One of the well-known, ruthless corollaries of a terrorist slaughter is the knowledge by its perpetrators that an inevitable, necessary response by those they have attacked will likely provoke an ultimate shift of public opinion, beginning with blaming the innocent victims for their reasonable defense, and ending, possibly, even with outright sympathy for the terrorists themselves.

This predictable mechanism permits terrorists to attack Israel, at will and at any time, and then to retreat immediately behind the public's insistence, including by many in positions of power worldwide, that Israel temper its response.

No matter how well we know Israel's extreme and unparalleled efforts to spare all human suffering, any of us may potentially become lulled into the trap of false moral equivalences, a calamitous scenario we see playing out now more and more, in the worldwide press and correspondingly in public opinion everywhere.

The one risk we cannot afford is the loss of support for Israel by Jews, or by our friends and supporters in the extended family we call k'lal Yisrael, especially by those of us living outside of Israel.

Jewish law forbids the intentional taking of innocent life, an ethical foundation built upon our knowledge, taught in the book of Genesis that we are now reading in every synagogue, that each human being was created equally in the image of G-d, and is therefore deserving of equal love, respect and happiness, as well as responsibility.

Thank G-d, Israel has upheld this moral principle since its founding. May G-d grant now the release of all captives, the healing of all who are wounded, the bereaved and those displaced and in danger, and may we see true peace and love conquer all the world, speedily and in our days – with love and blessings – Rabbi Karen Allen – 386.254.2773

The President's Message

I would like to wish you a Happy & Healthy New Year. Unfortunately, while Simchat Torah was being celebrated, Israel and the Jewish population have experienced the worst atrocities since the Holocaust. In addition, incidents of antisemitism have increased globally. As I watch the news, the horrors that Hamas perpetrated continue to be discovered on a daily basis.

On a positive note, locally we have had the Leesburg Police and the Lake County Sheriff's office reach out and promise more police presence at the synagogue. In addition, I was able to speak to one of the Pastors of First Baptist Church (our neighbor) who had called to express their support and let me know that if we need anything we should call them (he gave me his cell phone number). I hope these developments make our members and guests feel safe and that they will plan to attend services in person. Our gathering in the social hall to socialize is important for all of us to spend time with our synagogue family. So many of our congregation have strong ties to Israel and it is beneficial to share this time together. As the rabbi always says, it's more important to have our social time than the service itself.

Our original plans for the High Holidays were changed due to a Covid outbreak at our Rosh Hashanah services. As a result, our Yom Kippur services were limited to a few people in the building (Rabbi Allen, our Gabbai Marsha Stemmerman, Director Barry Wright and our shofar blower Bill Hillman) with the rest of us attending virtually. My personal thanks to Marsha for reading my Kol Nidre speech. For anyone who tried to attend in person services on Yom Kippur we did send out multiple emails to alert members of the change. As always, the health and safety of our congregation is our priority.

We have been asked how we can aid Israel. A list of charities was sent out recently. Sending money is probably the most effective way to help. A longtime member of the Congregation (Priscilla Reisinger) made a bequest to the synagogue. We have tried to use those funds to improve the synagogue and look for projects that Priscilla would have approved of. We made donations to 2 Israeli charities—<https://afmda.org/> American Friends of Magen David Adom (Israel's EMS) and <https://fidf.org/> Friends of the Israel Defense Forces—in her memory. She had a very strong connection to Israel and we felt that it was an appropriate use of her contribution.

We have a very special spiritual leader in Rabbi Karen Allen. Not only does she have a magnificent voice, but a compassionate heart. She is always available to any person who needs her assistance. In addition to leading all of our Holiday and Shabbat services, she conducts a very interesting discussion at the Rabbi's Roundtable (virtually, via Zoom). I encourage you to attend and join in the discussion.

I'm looking forward to seeing more of our members (and guests) in person to worship and socialize in greater unity. It's more important than ever to show up.

Wishing for Peace in Israel and for the Jewish people throughout the world,

Andrea Kraft

Leesburg Food Bank

Written by Director Francine Rizzotto, who volunteers at the Food Bank along with Director Barry Wright

Holiday Season is here.

Your support during this time of year is especially appreciated.

Besides our weekly distributions, the Food Bank provides a complete Thanksgiving OR Christmas dinner to families who sign up during October. Starting in the summer we put aside the necessary food items that will go into the holiday meal bags as well as reserve hams and turkeys in our freezer. The items we need the most now are: cold cereal, mac and cheese, mashed potatoes, side dishes, chili, manwich, and stuffing. Gift cards and monetary donations are always welcome.

You may not know that in addition to all the other services we provide, your food bank also plays Santa. Throughout the year as toys, bikes, crayons, games, puzzles, stuffed animals, children's items and new clothing are donated, these items are put aside for Christmas. Our amazing staff and friends get together between Thanksgiving and Christmas to wrap hundreds of presents for our children. So if you have something from a grandchild that has grown up or a niece or nephew has abandoned or if you see something new and special on sale, please consider donating to our Children's Corner. The smiles and looks of wonderment in the eyes of these kids, when you hand them a wrapped present, is truly heartwarming. Yes, bicycles for young riders are a huge hit!

I know many of you are 'Backpack Angels' and donate to our student weekend food program. We again have 340 children enrolled for this school year. We pack the boxes for the 7 schools we service and deliver to each school on Wednesday. A school liaison then repacks bags for each student to take home on Friday. We provide 2 breakfasts, 2 lunches, 2 snacks and a fruit cup or fruit bar. The requirement that all items be identical necessitates us having to buy these items so as to avoid any arguments on the bus ride home on Friday. If you wish to designate your donation to this program just write 'backpack' in the memo on your check.

Though we are a 'Food Bank' we also offer many items you might not think of to help those in need feel good about themselves. Our top five requests for personal care: shampoo, bar soap, deodorant, single toothbrushes and toothpaste. Feminine products, diapers, laundry soap, dish soap, dog and cat food, flour, sugar, and condiments are popular requests.

Our Food Bank services clients residing in Leesburg, Yalaha, Fruitland Park, Lady Lake and Okahumpka. We have three vans and one box truck that are on the road well before sunrise every day picking up food from grocery stores, organic farms, Sam's and two WaWas. Some of our volunteers come to work as early as 6 or 7 to sort and prepare the day's deliveries for distribution. Our doors are open for service from 8:30 to noon Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

In this time of urgent need in so many corners of the world, please consider sharing your holiday giving with your Leesburg Food Bank. We're on the next block. Stop in and take a tour.

To make a donation to the Food Bank, you can mail a check to the synagogue, with a note saying that it is for the food bank. We will forward your donation to them. Or you can mail a check directly to the Leesburg Food Bank, 503 N. 13th Street, Leesburg FL 34748.

CONGREGATION BETH SHOLOM
NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING AND
ELECTION OF OFFICERS / DIRECTORS
Sunday, January 21, 2024, at 11 AM.

Annual Meetings are important. The purpose is to keep you informed of the accomplishments and future of Congregation Beth Sholom. It is also when you elect officers and directors for their term of office.

At this time, we do not know if the meeting will be held at the synagogue or virtually via Zoom. Either way, all members who have made a dues payment are encouraged to attend the meeting and participate in the election of officers.

At this year's meeting we will be electing the Vice President, Treasurer, and 2 directors.

Vice President Linda Kost, Treasurer Dave Englander, and Directors Barry Wright have all announced that they will run for re-election. Director Francine Rizzotto was appointed to the board in October. She is running for election.

Nominations: If you would like to run for any of the positions, please let any board member know immediately, by phone or email. The deadline for submission is November 15th.

Please be sure to make your dues payment prior to December 31, 2023. This will keep you as a member in good standing and included in the membership directory. A new updated membership directory will be distributed at the annual meeting.

This is your synagogue - know what is happening – attend the Annual Meeting!

If you are a member in good standing (you have made a dues payment this year) and would like to participate in the board meetings, contact President Andrea Kraft or Vice President Linda Kost and they will send you the Zoom invite.

EXPLANATION OF DATES ON YAHRZEIT LIST

We give our members the option to observe yahrzeit on the secular date (the actual date of passing) or the Hebrew date. If there is no Hebrew date next to a name, it is because their family prefers to observe yahrzeit on the secular calendar date.

To add a loved one to the yahrzeit list, contact Linda Kost and provide the names and relationship of the congregant and relative, and the actual date of passing including the year. Please indicate whether you wish to observe yahrzeit on the secular or Jewish date.
