Prepare for the High Holidays

Our Shabbat service on September 8th at 7 pm will include S'lichot prayers that will enhance our time of reflection.

This is a time of introspection, reconciliation, and heightened spirituality.

You don't want to miss this opportunity to experience the magic of the ceremony transforming our bima and Torah covers from everyday color to the splendor of High Holy Day white.

You can attend in person or virtually on Zoom.

Rabbi's Message

"Reality is created by the mind. We can change our reality by changing our mind." – Plato

The months of this issue of our Shofar, covering September and October, span Elul, Tishrei and Cheshvan on the Jewish calendar.

These are months of immense change – from the turning inward, forgiveness and spiritual accounting of Elul, when G-d joins each person "in the field," where we live and work, through Tishrei, the month of High Holidays beginning with the march of all of humanity in judgment before G-d, returned once again to His heavenly throne, and concluding with the month known as "Marcheshvan" or "bitter Cheshvan," as it is the only month devoid of any festivals or fast days. Even the calendar must need a rest after Tishrei!

On a spiritual level, Elul is represented by the smallest letter of the Hebrew alphabet: Yud, essentially a mere dot on the page! This first letter of the words G-d, Israel, and Jew is a physical manifestation of the power of becoming small and humble in preparation for our upcoming appearance before the Divine throne. As we turn inward, substituting compassion for blame and getting closer to the pure and constant soul within us, we can go beyond the stories of our lives and find that spark of light and love that is our true, G-d-given nature.

Throughout all of this discovery of self and our immersion in the essence of the G-d Who created us, we practice the forgiveness to others that we want them, and G-d, to display toward us. At the same time, we can learn to give that same forgiveness to ourselves.

By the inner work of spiritual accountability, t'shuvah or returning to our true essence, we become open to a greater revelation of G-d, and to drawing down G-d's blessings for the healthy, happy year of freedom and peace – the shanah tovah u'm'tukah -- that I wish for every one of you, your family and loved ones, with love and blessings – Rabbi Karen Allen – 386.254.2773

Message from the President

I would like to wish you a Happy & Healthy New Year. I can't believe that we will soon welcome 5784. The year has certainly flown by. We continue to offer a hybrid option for our observance of the High Holidays for our members and their guests (in person for those who are comfortable to worship in the sanctuary and enhanced zoom for those who will be joining us virtually). Hopefully many of our members and guests will be able to join us in the shul to enjoy the special feeling of observing the holidays together. Our video and audio have been upgraded to improve the zoom experience. The new system allows for a better view of the bimah including the Ark. As with all projects at the synagogue, it takes a team of volunteers to make it happen. Thank you, Linda Kost, Fred Jacobs and Barry Wright for working to complete the project to fine tune the Zoom experience for all who join us virtually.

This past Friday was our Kabbalat Shabbat service which is one of the highlights of the year for me, and this one was no exception. We had a full house and it was wonderful to hear all the voices join with the Rabbi's. Of course, Zoriry Zinger's incredible violin playing adds to the special atmosphere to make it an occasion not to be missed. It was great to see so many familiar faces and some new ones as well. Our Oneg was sponsored by the Board of Directors and I would like to thank everyone who made it happen. As with anything, it definitely takes a "village". Everyone had the opportunity to socialize a little after the service. As Rabbi Allen tells us, socializing after the service is as important as saying prayers for those in need of healing.

In another effort to resume our normal practices, we were finally able to resume our Saturday morning Torah services. At our last Saturday service, the Torah was carried throughout the sanctuary so that everyone was able to kiss the Torah.

Our Congregation has a long and wonderful history. For more than 65 years services have been held in our building, which we own. As such, there is no building fund.

We have a very special spiritual leader in Rabbi Karen Allen. Not only does she have a magnificent voice, but a compassionate heart. She is always available to any person who needs her assistance. Not only does she lead our High Holiday and Shabbat Services, she also conducts a monthly RoundTable discussion group (via Zoom), and writes her inspirational letters in our Shofar.

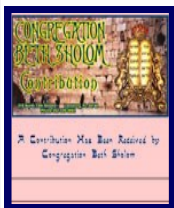

If you are visiting us for the holidays, I hope that you will consider becoming a member. We have so much to offer. If you are already a member, I hope that you will invite your friends and family to worship with us for the High Holidays so that they can feel the warmth that makes Congregation Beth Sholom "The Synagogue That Feels Like Family".

I look forward to seeing you at High Holiday Services.

L'Shana Tovah

Leesburg Food Bank

This article was written by Director Barry Wright. He mentions his wife, Cookie, who is no longer able to volunteer. Our member Francine Rizzotto volunteers on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Barry volunteers on Thursdays.

I have been working at the Leesburg Food Bank since the summer of 2016. It really does not seem that long. We have had many ups and downs. The normal situation before the pandemic was that the snowbirds would come back into town and the donations would increase dramatically especially around Thanksgiving and Christmas. Then the donations would slow down as dramatically during the summer.

With the pandemic everything changed. Starting in March 2020 everyone in the area became more generous. We do not have the same dramatic cycle of donations now. They do slow in the summer somewhat because the snowbirds go north. The room that Cookie used to handle for the clothes distribution is now strictly a storage for the extra foods because there is no room in the warehouse. The donations of other items like clothes, furniture, miscellaneous items are taken and sorted and then put in a storage container outside the building. That storage container is only opened when the Food Bank is open. Unfortunately that area has suffered the most, because Cookie made a point of helping everyone get what they needed. There was an area set up with rows and rows of racks of clothes where people could easily pick what they needed.

The donations from the synagogue obviously suffered with the pandemic. For awhile all of the services were handled via zoom. When we did reopen, very few people came to the synagogue, so fewer donations were brought to the shul. Those dedicated individuals took what they had to donate straight to the food bank. The larger items were still being donated and collected by the Food Bank.

Below is a history of the donations of food by Congregation Beth Shalom.

2016 - 401 pounds	2017 - 811 pounds	2018 - 685 pounds	2019 - 1036 pounds
2020 - 243 pounds	2021 - 85 pounds	2022 - 377 pounds	2023 - 154 pounds - so far

We are back in the building and more people are coming to services and socializing again. Hopefully that means that the donations of food and other things to the Leesburg Food Bank will increase to all new levels.

Demand is increasing. The Food Bank handles normally around 45 families a day. Lately it has been in the 60's. Fortunately, we have had food to handle that many people, but we need to have a larger supply. Take advantage of the BOGO specials at PUBLIX when you go and pick up the extra one for the food bank. PLEASE bring food and smaller items such as clothes to the synagogue when you come for services.

No one at the Food Bank from the President to the daily volunteers get paid. Everyone that works there works very hard. There a few people that go out early in the morning around 3:30AM and pick up the surplus food at the various Food Stores. We now even get food donations from WAWA.

The Leesburg Food Bank provides all this to the people they serve totally FREE of charge.

The Leesburg Food Bank is located 2 blocks north of the synagogue at 503 N. 13th Street. The Food Bank is non-denominational. They serve the community from 8:30 to 12 on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. You may drop off food, clothing, furniture, books, etc from 8:00 - 12 Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. If you have big items they will pick them up. Call 352-326-5463 for a pick up. Pick up is Monday through Saturday depending on availability of volunteers.

Thank you for helping us to support this worthy cause.

EXPLANATION OF DATES ON YAHRZEIT LIST

We give our members the option to observe yahrzeit on the secular date (the actual date of passing) or the Hebrew date. If there is no Hebrew date next to a name, it is because their family prefers to observe yahrzeit on the secular calendar date.
