Notice of January 17, 2027 Annual Congregational Meeting and Election of Board Officers & Director

Deadline is December 18, 2026 for Nominations

Pursuant to our Congregation's By-Laws, all members of Congregation Beth Sholom are hereby notified that the Annual Congregational Meeting will be held at Congregation Beth Sholom on Sunday, January 17, 2027 at 11:00 AM followed by a light luncheon.

At the aforesaid Meeting, an election will be held for the positions of President, Secretary, and three Director positions (the President and Secretary are two of our four Officer positions; three of five Director positions are up for election at this Annual Congregational Meeting; these combined nine positions comprise the Congregation's Board of Directors).

The deadline for any member in good standing of the Congregation to be nominated for any of the aforesaid five positions is December 18, 2026. Any member wishing to run for election to the position of President, Secretary, or Director should so notify any Officer or Director of the Congregation by telephone or email by December 18, 2026. (All Officers and Directors of the Congregation are listed, along with their phone numbers, on the front page of the Shofar, the Congregation's newsletter; and they are also listed along with their email addresses in the Member List which is provided to all members of the Congregation).

Pursuant to our By-Laws, in order to be eligible to run for election to any Officer or Director position on our Congregation's Board of Directors, a member must be in good standing as to dues payment, must be Jewish by birth or conversion, and must have at least one year of membership in the Congregation as of January 17, 2027, the election date. Only one person per household may serve as an officer or director.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

Letter to Congregants from Rabbi Silverman

Dear Friends of Congregation Beth Sholom, (Where it feels like family!) Nov/Dec

As autumn arrives and the weather begins to cool, we enter one of the sweetest times of the year—a season that invites us to remember, to give thanks, to reflect upon our lives, and to enjoy the warmth of being together as a Jewish community.

We begin November with a special Shabbat on Friday, November 13, when Martin and Lola Sandler will graciously sponsor our Kiddush. We will also take a moment to remember our veterans in recognition of Veterans Day, honoring those who served our country and remembering that the freedoms we enjoy have often come at a great personal cost to others. Gratitude, after all, is not simply something we feel; it is something we express.

On Sunday, November 15, our Sunday Lunch and Learn program continues with the topic "Death and Dying—The Jewish Tradition," complementing our ongoing Sunday class, "Did My Life Mean Anything?" These are serious questions, but they are also profoundly Jewish questions. Our tradition teaches us that a meaningful life is measured not merely by its length, but by the love we share, the kindness we offer, the wisdom we pass along, and the lives we touch. What better subject to explore together over a good meal and thoughtful conversation?

Thanksgiving will soon follow, and at our Saturday Morning Service on November 28, we will take time to reflect on the many blessings in our lives. Even when life brings its share of disappointments and challenges, there is always something worth appreciating: a friendship, a family memory, a helping hand, a familiar melody, or simply the opportunity to gather once more with people who share our traditions.

And then comes Chanukah—the Festival of Lights! On Friday, December 11, we will celebrate together at our Kabbalat Shabbat service, with a special opportunity to show off the menorahs treasured by our families. Each menorah has a story, and each light reminds us that even a small flame can push back a great deal of darkness. Let us bring our family menorahs, share their stories, and celebrate the light we create when we come together.

We will close out the year with a truly special occasion: the Bat Mitzvah of Nan Rosenthal, who will return to her Bat Mitzvah reading from those many years ago. What a beautiful reminder that Jewish learning and commitment do not belong to just one age or one moment in life. Some milestones are so meaningful that we carry them in our hearts for a lifetime—and sometimes, we are fortunate enough to celebrate them all over again!

As we move through November and December, I hope you will join us for our services, classes, lunches, and celebrations. Our congregation may be small, but the warmth, friendship, and spirit we share are anything but small.

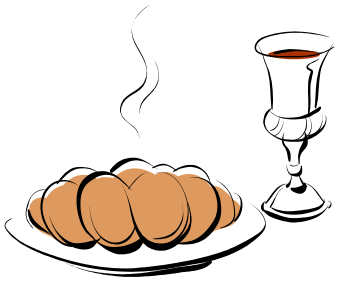

Perhaps that is one of the quiet lessons of this season: we cannot always control the passing of time, but we can choose how we spend it—and with whom we share it. A conversation, a prayer, a shared meal, or a candle glowing in the window can remind us that we are never simply passing through the years. We are creating memories, sustaining traditions, and bringing light into one another's lives.

May these coming months bring you and your families good health, gratitude, laughter, and the joy of being together. I look forward to seeing you at Beth Sholom as we celebrate the blessings of community and the enduring light of our Jewish tradition.

With warm wishes for a meaningful autumn and a joyous Chanukah,

Rabbi Reuven Silverman

SPONSOR AN ONEG SHABBAT OR KIDDUSH

There are many wonderful reasons to become a sponsor—celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or special occasion; honoring the memory of a loved one; or simply enjoying Shabbat. Of course, no reason is required beyond the willingness to take a turn. Sponsorship doesn't have to be done alone—you can invite a friend or a group of friends to co-sponsor with you. Sponsors provide the refreshments, while the shul supplies the challah, wine, paper goods, and plasticware. To reserve your date, please contact Barbara Burton at beburton43–at–yahoo.com (replace "–at–" with @) or 602-663-1688.

NAMETAGS ARE AVAILABLE

Let everyone know who you are with a personalized name tag! Tags are just $15 each. Simply mail your check to the synagogue along with a note indicating the name you would like printed on your tag. For more information, contact Dave Englander at 352-504-4402.

Anniversary Celebration

The Oneg on Friday October 9 was sponsored by Francine and Chip Rizzotto to celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary.

The Kiddush on Saturday October 24 was sponsored by Sandra Byrne in honor of her father's (Lt. Col. Ret. Herb Siegel) 91st Birthday. Also, Herb Siegel presenting a book to the Rabbi.

Additional Renewal Donations: Alisa Jacoby, Larry & Clementina Litowich, Karen Ragne and Lenny Steinberg

THANK YOU

Thank you, from our grateful Congregation, to the following:

Rabbi Silverman: for his excellence in preparations for and presenting of our High Holidays services, including changing of our torah mantels at the Selichot service, with excellent assistance from Rabbi Michael Asher, Gabbai Len Steinberg, Dr Marnell LaRoe Hayes and other members who assisted with the High Holidays services.

Rabbi Silverman for his devotion in his preparing and leading our ongoing Shabbat services, and to Len Steinberg, our gabbai, for his assistance in our ongoing services and in their preparation.

Rabbi Silverman, Dr. Elise Lev, Gabbai Len Steinberg, Dr. Elise Lev, and Dr. Marnell LaRoe Hayes, our Ritual Committee members, for their ongoing work on behalf of our Congregation. Special thank you to Dr. Marnell LaRoe Hayes for recently becoming the newest member of our Ritual Committee.

Rabbi Silverman, for arranging for the Shiva Basket donated by the congregation to our Gabbai, Len Steinberg, and his family, in observance of our most sad loss of Barbara Steinberg, Len's wife.

Rabbi Silverman, for Shabbat greetings to members, monthly 'Lunch and Learn' Zoom classes resuming October 25, weekly Torah / parsha study zoom classes, and updates concerning Israel news and other matters.

Al Simons, who is a candidate for the next presidency of C.B.S., for his recently becoming the newest member, as a director, of our Board of Directors

Dr. Marnell LaRoe Hayes and Dan and Eileen Hirschfeld, for donating the beautiful flowers for our High Holidays services in memory of the many contributions to C.B.S. of our late member, Priscilla Reisinger; and thanks to Dave Englander for caring for the flowers, and arranging several meetings with the florist for their transport to and from C.B.S. between the High Holidays services

Dave Englander: our treasurer, for many hours spent on ongoing tasks, both handling all financial matters, picking up our new Shofar copies, and attending to many maintenance issues at the shul, including recently having the bushes / trees trimmed and the shul power-washed in special preparation for the High Holidays, having a door lock repaired, and for hosting our 'Break the Fast' dinner at Toojays following Yom Kippur, enjoyed by many.

Jake Silverman, Regional Security Advisor with ShalomOrlando, for scheduling security and safety classes for us starting in January, 2027, and for his work in doing a threat assessment report, and related services, for C.B.S., and his presentation to our board to plan security improvements for C.B.S.

Dave Englander, Francine Rizzotto, Barry Wright, and Helene Bachmann, for obtaining the new year's Jewish calendars from Page-Theus, with C.B.S. contact information included thereon.

Gloria Blankenship, chair of the welcome/membership committee, and committee members: Andrea Kraft, Sandy Byrne, and Robin Vizer, for their ongoing support of C.B.S. in these endeavors.

Helene Bachmann, secretary, for providing orange juice and refreshments for Break the Fast; for preparing the Book of Remembrance for our High Holidays services, and for her ongoing work creating/distributing the minutes of board of directors and members meetings; and in maintaining lists for yahrzeits, birthdays, anniversaries, and yizkors; and monitoring emails sent to C.B.S.; and for volunteering to be backup for Melinda Hock for our website updates.

Gloria Blankenship for her ongoing work in receiving names for and maintaining the Mi Shebeirach list; and receiving phone calls for C.B.S.

Sandra Byrne, director, for her ongoing work preparing and distributing a survey concerning our services to our members, numerous emails to members for services and other events and matters, and to Helene Bachmann for covering for Sandy during her travel; and to Sandy for her progress in creating a GoogleDrive system for storing our important documents, and for her and Dave Englander for working to implement this.

Andrea Kraft, our past president, for again running the annual Mah Jongg cards sale campaign, which benefits C.B.S.

Barry Wright: for ongoing functions, procuring rental chairs at his expense, and setting up our sanctuary and social hall for the High Holidays, and for meeting a contractor for repair of our HVAC system, along with Robin Vizer's assistance; and for obtaining/installing updated batteries for our A.E.D., arranging other repairs as needed, and maintaining our IT (webcam, microphones, etc.) equipment; to keep the synagogue in good function.

Francine Rizzotto and Chip Rizzotto, for ongoing management of kitchen and food needs for our services and events; Dr. Elise Lev, who assisted with Break the Fast refreshments, and Helene Bachmann, Robin Vizer, Arlene Gibbs, Judy Schulman, and others who provide food assistance for our services.

Barbara Burton for her ongoing work in receiving / coordinating sponsors for onegs and kiddushes.

Susan Kaplan, for chairing our Grants Committee, and Len Steinberg, who serves on the committee for working on obtaining grants for security and emergency functions for our synagogue.

To our many members who attended and provided dishes of food for our Sukkot potluck luncheon following the Lulav service.

To the membership for providing food for many of our services and events.

Helene Steinberg, and her sisters, Marlene Steinberg, and Susan Goodman, for organizing the game days; the most recent being October 18.

The Villages Daily Sun including James Dinan its religious reporter, The Leesburg Daily Commercial, and the Jewish Heritage newspapers for High Holidays articles and listings concerning our synagogue.

Francine Rizzoto, Barry Wright, and Robin Vizer, who volunteer at the Leesburg Food Bank, and our members who provide donations to the Leesburg Food Bank, which benefits C.B.S. at times with surplus food and other items.

A brief history of the Leesburg Food Bank and CBS

Member Barry Wright started working with Don Diamant, the president of the Leesburg Food Bank in December, 2015 to discuss the best ways for us to help them. CBS had been supporting the Leesburg Food Bank with an annual High Holiday Food Drive and sharing proceeds from fund raisers for many years. But in February 2016 CBS decided to collect food on a continual basis throughout the year because they were in dire need.

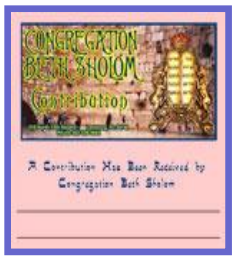

The Leesburg Food Bank is located 2 blocks north of the synagogue at 503 N 13th Street. The food bank is non-denominational. The Food Bank does not charge any fees for the items they provide to their clients. Everything donated is GIVEN to their families.

The Food Bank has changed a lot over the years. They are financially much stronger now and they support a lot more people in the community. They help feed anywhere from 40 to 60 families at a time. Today we have three members of Congregation Beth Sholom helping at the food bank: Francine Rizzotto, Robin Vizer and Barry Wright.

ADD YOUR LOVED ONE TO THE MEMORIAL BOARD Honoring the memory of a loved one with a permanent plaque in the sanctuary is a lasting and meaningful tribute. The cost of a plaque is $300, or $275 each when purchasing two or more. For more information, please contact Dave Englander at dhenglander0618–at–gmail.com (replace "–at–" with @) or 352-504-4402.

PARKING ALONGSIDE THE BUILDING IS NOW DESIGNATED FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES ONLY We kindly ask that those who are able park in the lot across 13th Street, allowing the spaces beside our building to remain available for members and guests with mobility needs.

SEND A CARD AND SUPPORT THE SYNAGOGUE

There are many meaningful reasons to send a card—birthdays, anniversaries, get well wishes, condolences, or congratulations. Your donation not only supports the synagogue but also lets someone know you care. Simply mail your donation to the synagogue along with your message. For more information, contact Dave Englander at 352-504-4402. He will send the card on your behalf, and your good wishes will be shared in the Shofar.

Mi Shebeirach

Director Gloria Blankenship maintains the list of the family and close friends of our members who are in need of healing. The list is presented at services. If you are a member and wish to add names of relatives or close friends who are in need of healing please email Gloria Blankenship EACH WEEK at glostar@embarqmail.com with their names not later than the Thursday prior to the service. NOTE - As we do not maintain an "ongoing" list; the names that are read aloud in services are only those that are received by Gloria following the previous service. A person who remains in need of healing can be re-added by notifying Gloria as stated above.

EXPLANATION OF DATES ON YAHRZEIT LIST We give our members the option to observe yahrzeit on the secular date (the actual date of passing) or the Hebrew date. If there is no Hebrew date next to a name, it is because their family prefers to observe yahrzeit on the secular calendar date. To add a loved one to the yahrzeit list, contact Helene Bachmann and provide the names and relationship of the congregant and relative, and the actual date of passing including the year. Please indicate whether you wish to observe yahrzeit on the secular or Jewish date. Contact Helene at helenebachmann –at– hotmail.com (replace –at– with @) or 310-490-3365
